
Days Gone By

Russell Lawson 3-28-09

2 measures of G

^C There could be trouble around you now
^C you might get through it but you don't know how ^C sorrows waitin' around the bend
^D ^C you worry if hard times will end
^D ^C you know, we all could use a friend

^C brother, you ache down in your heart
^C sister, you don't know how to start
^C life can wear you down at times
^D ^C make you want to stop and cry
^D ^C thinking about the days gone by

^D so, get on your knees and lift your voices high
^D 'cause there's a place above where every tear is dried
^D when you climb that golden stair into the sky
^G ^D you won't be thinking of days gone by ^G ^D no more thinking of days gone by

ONE VERSE INSTRUMENTAL

^C when you look back where you've been ^C and memories come flooding in ^C regret will leave you high and dry
^D ^C bring back every sad goodbye
^D ^C testify to days gone by

D so, get on your knees and lift your voices high
D 'cause there's a place above where every tear is dried
D when you climb that golden stair into the sky
G you won't be thinking of days gone by
G no more thinking of days gone by

C set your sights on kingdom come
C and let God's holy will be done
C trials and trouble that you find
D earthly cares that fill your mind
D leave them all in days gone by

D so, get on your knees and lift your voices high
D 'cause there's a place above where every tear is dried
D when you climb that golden stair into the sky
G you won't be thinking of days gone by
G you won't be thinking of days gone by
G no more thinking of days gone by
