4 measures of D

^G There could be trouble around you now ^D
^G you might get through it but you don't know how ^D
^G sorrows waitin' around the bend ^D
^A you worry if hard times will end ^D
^A you know, we all could use a friend ^D

^G brother, you ache down in your heart ^D
^G sister, you don't know how to start ^D
^G life can wear you down at times ^D
^A make you want to stop and cry ^D
^A thinking about the days gone by ^D

^A so, get on your knees and lift your voices high ^D ^G
^A 'cause there's a place above where every tear is dried ^D ^G ^D
^A when you climb that golden stair into the sky ^D ^G
^D you won't be thinking of days gone by ^D ^G
^D no more thinking of days gone by ^A

^G when you look back where you've been ^D
^G and memories come flooding in ^D
^G regret will leave you high and dry ^D
