C F C F

When I see these mountains
And I smell this air
I ache to have you by me
But I know that you're not there
When the morning's painted
By a sunrise sky
Still I wish to hold you to me
And I almost want to die

Am G F C
Though it's many hundred miles from here
Am G F
The heartache lingers on and on
Am G F C
Many years ago was yesterday
Am F C
It's only a moment since you've gone

C F C F

I would plan for hours
for the days ahead
Tried so hard to make it easy
I never heard the words you said
Now you're another person
And I'm so far away
Someone asked me "Was it worth it?"
Well, I just don't want to say

F C F
This old heart is pounding
F C F
Ringing in my ears
 C Em7
And I know this burning feeling
 Am F
May soon change into tears
F C F
So I walk real slowly
F C F
And I hold my breath
 C Em7
The memory of your laughter's
 Am F
