

Same old

(Psalm 130) R. Lawson 6/29/08

G D C
Walking out in the noonday sun just the other day
G D C
Thinkin' 'bout how good a man can be
G D C
Sweetheart walking by my side, cool breeze comes our way
G D C A7
Suddenly life brings me to my knees

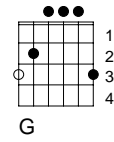

C D
It's the same old parts I keep on breaking
G Em
Same complaints, same mistakes I'm making
C D
Same old troubles, same old game
B7 Em
Can't explain why I don't change
C D
The saving Grace of forgiveness, Lord
G Em
Without it I could not last for long
A7 C
I'm waiting, waiting for the dawn

Make a list of the things I've done, I'll never live it down but it's a debt You'll never make me pay like that soldier standing watch, I'm eager to be found
I'm telling you, by mercy we'll be saved

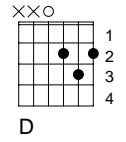

It's the same old parts I keep on breaking
Same complaints, same mistakes I'm making
Same old troubles, same old game
Can't explain why I don't change
The saving Grace of forgiveness, Lord
Without it I could not last for long
I'm waiting, waiting for the dawn

break=D-C-G/D-C-B7/D-C-G/A7-B7-C

With all my heart I will wait for You till the next sunrise
I believe Your power and Your love
As good a man as I have to be, aiming for the prize

My help can only come from up above

It's the same old parts I keep on breaking
Same complaints, same mistakes I'm making
Same old troubles, same old game
Can't explain why I don't change
The saving Grace of forgiveness, Lord
Without it I could not last for long
I'm waiting, waiting for the dawn
